REQUIRED READING

There is a great book senior staff should immediately read and then convene a study group. Here is one of the more famous quotes from it:

“And he said...Tomorrow is a day of rest...”

More than ever, Central and Local District offices are bombarding administrators with “required,” “mandated,” and “expected to attend” Saturday meetings. AALA has contacted the organizers of the meetings and respectfully requested that meetings on Saturday be suspended. The District’s response has been rather bureaucratic and seriously lacking empathy and sensitivity:

“I want to thank you for reaching out to me regarding the principal’s concern. It is our goal to accommodate our schools and provide the best training and support to all staff.

This rollout is designed to provide all required training to selected schools during noninstructional time. In 2014, the Superintendent requested this in order to avoid having principals and teachers away from the school site to attend meetings or trainings during the instructional day.

We are aware that some District staff may not be available to attend Saturday training and strive to make accommodations whenever possible, including selecting new training dates, other locations, modifying the school year that the site is designated to receive training, and identifying an administrative designee to attend the training on the principal’s behalf. Additionally, we are happy to work with individual principals to accommodate particular requests.”

Please let me know if you have any questions, feedback, or additional suggestions to address this concern.

AALA indeed responded immediately:

Greetings, LAUSD senior staff member:

AALA appreciates your prompt response. In the past, administrators requesting accommodations have been made to feel “less than” and perceived as uncooperative. AALA has asked the District on various occasions to suppress “mandated, required, and expected to attend” Saturday meetings. Initiatives of such great importance to the District need to be addressed during the contractual workweek. Take this opportunity to weed the garden and lighten the workload of administrators by re-examining every meeting the administrator is required to attend and incorporate these urgent trainings and initiatives into the administrator’s workweek.

REQUIRED READING (Cont.)

The District has gone out of its way to highlight that administrators are being paid their regular hourly rate and Z time to attend Saturday trainings. However, the District is completely missing the boat on this one. The question of compensation is not at play here. Administrators report caring for ailing parents, enthusiastically refereeing and shuttling their own offspring to extracurricular activities, running to and from the dry cleaners to appear “administratively” to the world Monday through Friday, buying groceries for sustenance, and wanting to decompress with friends, loved ones, and the world at large is priceless. No compensation the District offers can substitute for this.

AALA will happily lead a study session for the District, during company time of course, to rework, reimagine, and reprioritize District initiatives and trainings so no Saturday meetings are needed. In those rare instances when this is not possible, then the District will in good faith, without judgment, and/or retaliatory measures VOLUNTARILY INVITE administrators to Saturday trainings.

Hopefully, the District will read the tea leaves of administrative dissatisfaction and immediately impose a moratorium on Saturday trainings and professional developments.

SATURDAY IS A DAY OF REST OF BIBLICAL PROPORTIONS!

HEALTH BENEFITS FAQ— KEEPING PERSONAL DATA UP-TO-DATE

The Benefits Administration Branch administers district health benefits, and it is extremely important that employees and retirees keep their personal information up-to-date. This is especially relevant this year, since a new MOU is being negotiated for health benefits. If you have moved and forgotten to inform the District, below are the steps to follow to notify Benefits Administration of changes to your personal information.

Did you know that each year the District gets back hundreds of undeliverable Open Enrollment packets due to faulty home addresses?

It's true, and it happens every year! During a major event like moving to a new home, it's easy to forget to inform the District, especially after contacting the Post Office, the DMV, credit card and mortgage companies, your friends, and family.

Active Employees

I moved and changed my address at my work location. Isn't this enough for mail about my health benefits to be sent to my new home?

Yes, if you changed your address on the Employee Self-Service (ESS) website. If not, you may file a separate change of address for your health benefits on the Benefits Administration website, <https://achieve.lausd.net/benefits>. Select Change of Address Form, listed under Forms and Publications, then Active Employees. Complete the form, and print a copy to sign. Mail or fax to the address or number on the form.

How do I let Benefits Administration know I just got married?

To add your spouse to your health benefits, download the form Request for Change of Dependent Status on the Benefits Administration website. You will provide the reason for adding a dependent. The back of the form tells what documentation you will need to submit.

Retirees

I am thinking about moving to another county or state where my current plan is not available. How do I change my address and change to an available plan when I move?

- To change your address, go to the Benefits Administration website, <https://achieve.lausd.net/benefits>, and select Change of Address Form, listed under Forms and Publications, District Retirees.
- To change your health plan, contact Benefits Administration to learn which plan or plans are available in your new location. Then, fill out the Out of Area Enrollment Form.

I am considering moving out of the country after I retire. Do my health benefits follow me?

No, there is no out-of-country coverage for retirees, except for retirees who moved to another country before 2010; they have grandfathered status.

If you have any questions about making changes to your health benefits, contact Benefits Administration at 213.241.4262.

CHANGES TO SALARY WARRANT DISTRIBUTION

ALA thanks Rob Samples, Assistant Director of Labor Relations, for providing this information.

Employees currently have the option of receiving their salaries through direct deposit or through physical pay warrants. Currently, those who select direct deposit can elect to opt-out of the paperless pay stub and have a remuneration statement (pay stub) mailed to an address on file. Effective October 1, 2017, the District will cease mailing pay stubs to those employees who have direct deposit. These employees will be able to view their paystub through the LAUSD Employee Self Service (ESS) Portal or through the FIORI application that is accessible through smart phones.

Similarly, those employees currently receiving a physical pay warrant through school mail will no longer have this option. As of October 1, 2017, all physical payroll warrants will be sent via U.S. Mail to the employee's address of record with the District.

In light of the District's recent budget reductions, these changes are being implemented to avoid unnecessary costs and increase efficiency. Employees will continue to have access to the LAUSD Employee Self Service (ESS) Portal to view and/or print out their remuneration statements. Resources and technical assistance will be available to employees throughout this transition. If you have any questions, please call 213.241.8322.

UPDATE ON THE DACA PROGRAM

Last week, Dr. Michelle King, LAUSD Superintendent, sent a letter to all District employees stating the District's position on the federal government's announcement to end the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) Program. It also includes resources for District personnel, students, and families. We are providing a link to the letter for your convenience; please click HERE to view it.

In addition, Allison Davenport, staff attorney with the Immigrant Legal Resource Center (ILRC), said that there are seven things that DACA recipients (Dreamers) should know:

1. You are protected from deportation and can continue working until your permit expires.
2. If you are eligible to renew your permit for another two years, you can do so but must start the process by October 5.
3. New applications for DACA benefits are no longer accepted as of now. If you applied for the first time before September 5, your application will be processed normally.
4. Get legal advice. You may be eligible for other immigration protections such as a U visa, or if you have a family member, spouse, or child who is a U.S. citizen, he/she can request permanent residency for you. If you have an immediate family member in the military, that person can also request a green card for you.
5. Be careful about fraudulent legal representation. You can search for reliable legal immigration services in your area at immigrationadvocates.org.
6. If you have been convicted of a crime, you are ineligible to renew your DACA protection.

DACA (Cont.)

7. International travel permits or advance parole will no longer be approved, including those that were in process. It is not recommended to travel out of the country even if your DACA permit is still valid.

CHICANO YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The Fall 2017 Chicano Youth Leadership Conference (CYLC) will take place October 13 through October 15. Senior high school principals and Local District Superintendents have received letters and applications. Eleventh grade Mexican-American/Latino students who have a 2.9 GPA are eligible to attend the 3-day conference that will be held at Camp Hess Kramer in Malibu. The Spring 2017 Conference had 139 students from throughout LAUSD attend. This is the granddaddy of all youth conferences, having begun in 1963.

CYLC attendees have a 100% high school graduation rate, the LAUSD goal, and 84% of them go on to, but more importantly, graduate from, a four-year college or university within five years. High school principals, please make sure that your school has four eleventh grade students (two boys and two girls) complete and return the applications, which are due September 22. For more information, please contact Myrna Brutti, Local District South Operations Administrator, at 310.354.3417.

- Notifying Teachers about Evaluation Status

Per Article X of the LAUSD-UTLA Collective Bargaining Agreement, if an employee is scheduled for evaluation in the upcoming year, he/she must be notified by September 15, 2017. In the case of teachers reporting to work after September 15, 2017, and before October 6, 2017, the notice of evaluation must be given within ten working days of the employee reporting to work. Employees newly assigned to a school later than October 6, 2017, shall not be subject to evaluation in the current school year, except in situations where the employee does not have permanent status or received a BSE in the previous academic year.
